House Bill No. 2271***

by deleting all of the language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-1-111, is amended by deleting subsections (1), (2) and (3) in their entirety and by substituting instead the following new subsections:

As used in chapters 1 through 6 of this title; unless otherwise indicated or unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue; and
- (2) "Department" means the department of revenue.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-101 is amended by deleting the language therein in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:
Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, chapters 1 through 6 of this title shall be administered by the commissioner of revenue.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-105, is amended by deleting the word "division" in the first sentence of subsection (a) and wherever it may appear in subsection (b) and by substituting instead the word "department" in each instance.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-106, is amended by deleting the words "commissioners of safety and revenue" and by substituting instead the word "commissioner".

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-107, is amended by deleting the word "division" wherever it may appear in the section and by substituting instead the word "department" in each instance.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-108, is amended by deleting the language of the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(a) The department is hereby authorized to take possession of any certificate of title, certificate of registration, permit or license or license plate issued by the department or by any county clerk, if such document or plate is fictitious, has been issued in error or unlawfully, contains erroneous information, or has been ordered revoked, cancelled or suspended by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) An action by the commissioner with regard to subsection (a) above or an action by the commissioner in issuing or refusing to issue any certificate of registration, permit, license or license plate shall be reviewed in the manner provided for in § 67-1-105 and title 4, chapter 5, part 3; provided, that the party aggrieved thereby makes a written request for a formal hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act within ten (10) days of the action complained of.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-109, is amended by deleting the language therein in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:
If the commissioner of safety publishes a synopsis or summary of the laws of this state regulating the operation of vehicles, and provides copies of such published synopsis or summary to the commissioner of revenue, and requests that a copy be delivered with each certificate of title, the commissioner of revenue shall do so without charge.

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-2-110, is amended by deleting the word "division" wherever it may appear in the first sentence of subsection (a) and by substituting instead the word "department" in each instance.

If a report of the accident is not received by the commissioner of safety within twenty (20) days, as required by subsection (a) above, the commissioner may issue a notice of suspension of the operator's license and, immediately upon request by the commissioner of safety, the commissioner of revenue shall issue a notice of suspension of the registration of the motor vehicle involved. Notices of the suspension of the operator's license and the motor vehicle's registration shall be sent by United States mail not less than twenty (20) days prior to the effective date of suspension. Each notice shall state that the vehicle's operator or owner, or both, are entitled to an administrative hearing held by the commissioner of safety, or the commissioner's delegate, pursuant to a request under the provisions of § 55-12-103(a). The commissioner of safety shall suspend the license or nonresident operating privileges, and shall request that the commissioner of revenue suspend the motor vehicle registration of any person involved in an accident as a motor vehicle operator or owner in this state who willfully fails, refuses or neglects to make or have filed in such person's behalf, an accident report. A person whose motor vehicle operating privileges have been so suspended may obtain restoration of driving privileges by filing a report of the accident and paying a restoration fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) to the commissioner of safety. If the registration of the motor vehicle involved in the accident has been suspended, upon receipt of such payment, the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately.

At any time after five (5) years from the date of suspension, the department of safety may, in its own discretion, or upon request of the person required to file an accident report, withdraw the suspension of the driver's operating privileges and the commissioner of revenue, upon request by the commissioner of safety and upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, shall immediately reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration; provided, that the records of the department of safety establish that the person, during the preceding five (5) years, has not been convicted of any offense authorizing or requiring suspension, revocation, prohibition, or cancellation of license or registration upon order of the department or a court arising from a conviction for a violation of the law.

SECTION 80. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-105, is amended by inserting the words "shall request the commissioner of revenue to immediately revoke" between the word "and" and the word "all" in subsection (a);

and is further amended by inserting the words "by the commissioner of safety or the commissioner's delegate" between the word "conducted" and the word "pursuant" in the first sentence of subsection (c).

(c) If a motor vehicle operator or owner has met the requirements set forth in subsection (a) above to have the registration of a motor vehicle reinstated, the commissioner of revenue, upon request of the commissioner of safety and upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, shall immediately make such reinstatement.

SECTION 82. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-109, is amended by inserting the words "immediately upon request by the commissioner of safety, the commissioner of revenue shall suspend or revoke" between the word "and" and the word "all" in the first sentence of subsection (b); and is further amended by inserting the words "the commissioner of safety" between the word "furnishes" and the word "evidence" in the last sentence of subsection (b); and is further amended by inserting the words “to the commissioner of safety” immediately after the word “fee” in the last sentence of subsection (b);

and is further amended by adding the following new sentence at the end of subsection (b):

If the motor vehicle operator or owner has met the requirements set forth in this subsection (b) to have the registration of a motor vehicle reinstated, the commissioner of revenue, upon request of the commissioner of safety and upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, shall immediately make such reinstatement.

At any time after five (5) years from the date of revocation, the department of safety may, in its own discretion, or upon request of the person required to furnish proof of financial responsibility, release the requirement of such proof if the records of the department of safety establish that the person, during the preceding five (5) year period, has not been convicted of any offense authorizing or requiring the suspension or revocation, of a license or registration by the department of safety, the department of revenue or a court arising from a conviction for a violation of the law. If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (c), releases the requirement that a person furnish proof of financial responsibility, and if such person’s motor vehicle registration has been revoked or suspended due to failure to furnish such proof, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner’s registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the provisions of this subsection (c) shall not apply if there is an unsatisfied judgment based on a motor vehicle accident.

SECTION 83. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-114, is amended by deleting the language in subsection (a) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

Whenever the commissioner of safety, under any law of this state, suspends or revokes the license of any person by reason of a conviction, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue suspend or revoke all registrations in the name of such person and such registrations shall be suspended or revoked immediately; provided, that the registrations in the name of such person shall not be suspended, unless otherwise required by law, if such person has previously given or shall immediately give and shall maintain for three (3) years, proof of financial responsibility.

Upon restoration of a person's license, the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately.

and is further amended by deleting the language in subsection (d) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

At any time after five (5) years from the date of revocation, the department of safety may, in its own discretion, or upon request of the person required to furnish proof of financial responsibility, release the requirement of such proof if the records of the department of safety establish that the person, during the preceding five (5) year period, has not been convicted of any offense authorizing or requiring the suspension or revocation, of a license or registration by the department of safety or by the department of revenue, and has not suffered suspension, revocation, prohibition, or cancellation of license as ordered by the department of safety or by a court. If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (d), releases the requirement that a person furnish proof of financial responsibility, and if such person's motor vehicle registration has been suspended or revoked due to failure to furnish such proof, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees to the commissioner of revenue provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the provisions of this subsection (d) shall not apply if there is an unsatisfied judgment based on a motor vehicle accident.

SECTION 84. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-116, is amended by adding the following new sentence at the end of subsection (a): and is further amended by deleting the language in subsection (b) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

At any time after five (5) years from the date of revocation, the department of safety may, in its own discretion, or upon request of the person required to furnish proof of financial responsibility, release the requirement of such proof if the records of the department of safety establish that the person, during the preceding five (5) year period, has not been convicted of any offense authorizing or requiring the suspension or revocation, of a license or registration by the department of safety or the department of revenue, and has not suffered suspension, revocation, prohibition, or cancellation of license or registration arising from a conviction or a violation of law as ordered by the department or a court. If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (b), releases the requirement that a person furnish proof of financial responsibility, and if such person's motor vehicle registration has been suspended or revoked due to failure to furnish such proof, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the provisions of this subsection (b) shall not apply if there is an unsatisfied judgment based on a motor vehicle accident.

SECTION 85. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-117, is amended by deleting the language in subsections (a) and (b) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(a) Whenever, by reason of a conviction, the commissioner of safety suspends or revokes a nonresident's operating privileges in this state, or requests that the commissioner of revenue suspend or revoke such person's registration privileges, such privileges shall remain so suspended or revoked as permitted under the motor vehicle laws of this state until such person shall immediately give, and maintain for three (3) years, proof of financial responsibility as required by § 55-12-126 and pay to the commissioner of safety a sixty-five dollar ($65.00) restoration fee. Upon restoration of such person's license, the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate such person's motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately.

(b) At any time after five (5) years from the date of revocation, the department of safety may, in its own discretion, or upon request of the person required to furnish proof of financial responsibility, release the requirement of such proof if the records of the department of safety establish that the person, during the preceding five (5) year period, has not been convicted of any offense authorizing or requiring the suspension or revocation, of a license or registration by the department of safety or by the department of revenue and has not suffered suspension, revocation, prohibition, or cancellation of license or registration arising from a conviction or a violation of law as ordered by the department or a court. If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (b), releases the requirement that a person furnish proof of financial responsibility, and if such person's motor vehicle registration has been suspended or revoked due to failure to furnish such proof, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the provisions of this subsection (b) shall not apply if there is an unsatisfied judgment based on a motor vehicle accident.

SECTION 86. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-118, is amended by deleting the language in subsection (a) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

Upon receipt of a certified copy of final judgment, the commissioner of safety shall forthwith revoke the operator's license of any resident of this state and any nonresident's operating privileges in this state against whom judgment is rendered, if the same shall not be paid within sixty (60) days from the date of final judgment, and no restriction as to time based upon the commissioner's authority elsewhere in this chapter shall be a bar to such action under the authority of this section; provided, that any judgment paid to the extent of the limits of financial responsibility specified in § 55-12-102 shall, for the purpose of this section, be considered paid. Immediately upon request by the commissioner of safety, the commissioner of revenue shall revoke all the motor vehicle registrations of any resident or nonresident against whom such judgment is rendered, if the same shall not be paid within sixty days from the date of final judgment.

If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (c), reinstates a person's operator's license that has been revoked under the authority of this section, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate such person's motor vehicle registrations revoked under authority of this section and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registrations shall be reinstated immediately.

SECTION 87. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-125, is amended by deleting the language in subdivision (a)(3) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

If the license of a person who has given proof is surrendered to the commissioner of safety and such person's registration is surrendered to the commissioner of revenue.

and is further amended by deleting the language in subsection (c) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

If a person whose proof has been cancelled or returned under subdivision (a)(1) applies to the commissioner of safety for a license within a period of three (3) years from the date such proof was originally required, the commissioner of safety shall refuse the application and shall request that the commissioner of revenue refuse any registration application, unless the applicant shall reestablish such proof for the remainder of such three (3) year period.

SECTION 88. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-126, is amended by deleting the first sentence of subsection (b) and by substituting instead the following new sentence:

If a policy of insurance or a bond required under this section and issued to any person is cancelled or terminated, the commissioner of safety shall suspend the license of such person and shall request that the commissioner of revenue suspend such person's motor vehicle registration, unless the person has filed proof of another policy or bond meeting the requirements of this chapter, and the license of such person shall immediately be surrendered to the commissioner of safety and such person's motor vehicle registration shall immediately be surrendered to the commissioner of revenue.

and is further amended by inserting the words "before the commissioner of safety or the commissioner's delegate" between the word "hearing" and the word "conducted" in the second sentence of subsection (b);

and is further amended by deleting the language in subsections (c) and (d) in their entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(c) Any person whose license or registration, or both, has been suspended for failure to maintain evidence of financial responsibility shall, upon reapplying for an operator's license, refile and maintain with the commissioner evidence of financial responsibility, pay a sixty-five dollar ($65.00) restoration fee and pass the driver license examination. If the commissioner of safety, pursuant to this subsection (c), reinstates a person's operator's license that has been suspended under the authority of this section, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate such person's motor vehicle registration revoked under authority of this section and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately.

(d) At any time after five (5) years from the date of revocation, the department of safety may, in its own discretion, or upon request of the person required to furnish proof of financial responsibility, release the requirement of such proof if the records of the department of safety establish that the person, during the preceding five (5) year period, has not been convicted of any offense authorizing or requiring the suspension or revocation of a license or registration by the department of safety or by the department of revenue and has not suffered suspension, revocation, prohibition, or cancellation of license or registration upon order of the department or a court arising from a conviction of a violation of the law. If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (d), releases the requirement that a person furnish proof of financial responsibility, and if such person's motor vehicle registration has been suspended or revoked due to failure to furnish such proof, then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner's registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the provisions of this subsection (d) shall not apply if there is an unsatisfied judgment based on a motor vehicle accident.

SECTION 89. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-127, is amended by deleting the words "surrender license and registration to the commissioner" at the end of the first sentence of subsection (a) and by substituting instead the words "surrender such person's operator's license to the commissioner of safety and surrender such person's motor vehicle registration to the commissioner of revenue"; and is further amended by deleting the second sentence in subsection (a) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new sentence:

If any person fails to return to the commissioner of safety such person's license, or to return to the commissioner of revenue such person's registration, as provided herein, the commissioner of safety, shall forthwith direct any peace officer or enforcement officer of the department of safety to secure possession thereof and to return the same to the department of safety in the case of a license, or to the department of revenue in the case of a registration.

and is further amended by inserting the words "of safety or the commissioner of revenue" between the word "commissioner" and the word "as" in the third sentence of subsection (a);

and is further amended by deleting the fourth sentence of subsection (a) and by substituting instead the following new sentence:

All such confiscated licenses shall be immediately forwarded to the commissioner of safety and all such confiscated registrations and plates shall be immediately forwarded to the commissioner of revenue together with the completed notification of service of the order.

and is further amended by inserting the words “of safety” between the word “department” and the word “a” in the second sentence of subsection (b); and is further amended by inserting the following new sentence immediately after the second sentence of subsection (b):

If the department of safety, pursuant to this subsection (b), reinstates a person’s license, and if such person’s motor vehicle registration has been cancelled, suspended or revoked as required by subsection (a), then the commissioner of safety shall request that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle owner’s registration and, upon payment to the commissioner of revenue of the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113, such registration shall be reinstated immediately.

SECTION 90. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-129, is amended by inserting the words “of safety” between the word “commissioner” and the word “a” in the first sentence of subsection (a);

and is further amended by adding the following new sentence at the end of subsection (a):

In addition, whenever the commissioner of safety requests that the commissioner of revenue reinstate the motor vehicle registration of a person who has filed proof of financial responsibility, such person shall first pay to the commissioner of revenue the appropriate motor vehicle registration fees provided by §§ 55-4-111, 55-4-112 or 55-4-113 for each registration reinstated and the commissioner of revenue shall then reinstate each registration immediately.

and is further amended by deleting the language in subsection (e) in its entirety and substituting instead the following new language:

Fees paid to the department of safety pursuant to this title shall be expendable receipts to be used by the commissioner of safety towards the cost of administering the provisions of this title.

SECTION 91. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-130, is amended by inserting the words “for the commissioner of revenue” between the word “unlawful” and the word “to” in subsection (a);

and is further amended by inserting the words “of safety” immediately after the word “commissioner” each time it appears in subsection (a);

and is further amended by deleting the second sentence of subsection (c) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new sentence:

It is also a Class C misdemeanor to fail or refuse to surrender upon demand any revoked license to the department of safety or any revoked registration to the department of revenue.

SECTION 92. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-134, is amended by deleting the words “registration or” appearing therein and by adding the following new language as the final sentence thereof:

If the commissioner of safety suspends a person’s license for failure to provide proof of financial responsibility as provided herein, the commissioner of safety shall also request that the commissioner of revenue suspend such person’s motor vehicle registration pending the filing of such proof.

SECTION 93. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-12-140, is amended by deleting the words “the commissioner of safety” in the last sentence of subsection (a) and by substituting instead the words and punctuation “upon request by the commissioner of safety, the commissioner of revenue”.

SECTION 94. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-17-114(b)(1), is amended by inserting two new, appropriately designated subdivisions as follows:

( ) possesses an executed certificate of title without the name of the transferee appearing thereon.

SECTION 112. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-25-107, is amended by deleting the language therein in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(a) The department, or any officer, employee, or contractor thereof, shall not knowingly disclose or otherwise make available to any person or entity:

(1) Personal information about any individual obtained by the department in connection with a motor vehicle record, except as provided in this section; or

(2) Highly restricted personal information about any individual obtained by the department in connection with a motor vehicle record, without the express consent of the person to whom such information applies, except uses permitted in subdivisions (b)(1), (b)(4), (b)(6), and (b)(9); provided, however, that this subdivision (a)(2) shall not in any way affect the administration of organ donation initiatives in this state.

(b) Personal information referred to in subsection (a) shall be disclosed for use in connection with matters of motor vehicle or driver safety and theft, motor vehicle emissions, motor vehicle product alterations, recalls, or advisories, performance monitoring of motor vehicles and dealers by motor vehicle manufacturers, and removal of non-owner records from the original owner records of motor vehicle manufacturers to carry out the purposes of Titles I and IV of the federal Anti Car Theft Act of 1992, the federal Automobile Information Disclosure Act found in Title 15 U.S.C. 1231 et seq., the federal Clean Air Act of 1992 found in Title 42 U.S.C. 7401 et seq., and Title 49, U.S.C. §§ 30101 et seq., 30501 et seq., 32101 et seq.,- 33101 et seq., and, subject to subdivision (a)(2) above, may be disclosed as follows:

(1) For use by any government agency, including any court or law enforcement agency, in carrying out its functions, or any private person or entity acting on behalf of a federal, state or local agency in carrying out its functions.

(2) For use in connection with matters of motor vehicle or driver safety and theft; motor vehicle emissions; motor vehicle product alterations, recalls, or advisories; performance monitoring of motor vehicles, motor vehicle parts and dealers; motor vehicle market research activities, including survey research; and removal of non-owner records from the original owner records of motor vehicle manufacturers.

(3) For use in the normal course of business by a legitimate business or its agents, employees, or contractors, but only –

(A) To verify the accuracy of personal information submitted by the individual to the business or its agents, employees, or contractors;
and

(B) If such information as so submitted is not correct or is no longer correct, to obtain the correct information, but only for purposes of preventing fraud by, pursuing legal remedies against, or recovering on a debt or security interest against, the individual.

(4) For use in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative, or arbitral proceeding in any federal, state, or local court or agency or before any self-regulatory body, including the service of process, investigation in anticipation of litigation, and the execution or enforcement of judgments and orders, or pursuant to an order of a federal, state or local court.

(5) For use in research activities, and for use in producing statistical reports, so long as the personal information is not published, redisclosed, or used to contact individuals.

(6) For use by any insurer or insurance support organization, or by a self-insured entity, or its agents, employees, or contractors, in connection with claims investigation activities, antifraud activities, rating or underwriting.

(7) For use in providing notice to the owners of towed or impounded vehicles.

(8) For use by any licensed private investigative agency or licensed security service for any purpose permitted under this subsection.

(9) For use by an employer or its agent or insurer to obtain or verify information relating to a holder of a commercial driver's license that is required under Title 49 U.S.C. §§ 31301 et seq.

(10) For use in connection with the operation of private toll transportation facilities.

(11) For any other use in response to requests for individual motor vehicle records if the state has obtained the express consent of the person to whom such personal information pertains.

(12) For bulk distribution for surveys, marketing or solicitations if the state has obtained the express consent of the person to whom such personal information pertains.

(13) For use by any requester, if the requester demonstrates it has obtained the written consent of the individual to whom the information pertains.

(14) For any other use specifically authorized under the law of this state, if such use is related to the operation of a motor vehicle or public safety.

(c) An authorized recipient of personal information (except a recipient under subdivision (b)(11) or (12)) may resell or redisclose the information only for use permitted under subsection (b) (but not for uses under subdivision (b)(11) or (12)). An authorized recipient under subdivision (b)(11) may resell or redisclose personal information for any purpose. An authorized recipient under subsection (b)(12) may resell or redisclose personal information pursuant to subsection (b)(12). Any authorized recipient (except a recipient under subsection (b)(11)) that resells or rediscloses personal information covered by this section must keep for a period of 5 years records identifying each person or entity that receives information and the permitted purpose for which the information will be used and must make such records available to the department of revenue or the department of safety upon request.

(d) The department of revenue or the department of safety may establish and carry out procedures under which the department or its agents, upon receiving a request for personal information that does not fall within one of the exceptions in subsection (b) above, may mail a copy of the request to the individual about whom the information was requested, informing such individual of the request, together with a statement to the effect that the information will not be released unless the individual waives their right to privacy under this section.

(e) Under no circumstances may the department of revenue or the department of safety condition or burden in any way the issuance of an individual's motor vehicle record to obtain express consent for the disclosure of such record. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the department of revenue or the department of safety from charging an administrative fee for issuance of a motor vehicle record.

(f) Motor vehicle records, personal information, or highly restricted personal information shall be disclosed to any person by the department of revenue or the department of safety upon proof of the identity of the person requesting the record or information and representation by such person that the use of the personal information will be strictly limited to one (1) or more of the permitted uses described in this section.

(g) Before issuing motor vehicle records, personal information, or highly restricted personal information, the department of revenue or the department of safety may require any person, federal, state, or local governmental agency requesting such information, or each of the requesting entity's contractors, officers or individuals in the employ of such person or governmental agency that will have access to such information, to execute a confidentiality agreement stating that the recipient, or the recipient's contractor, officer or employee, as the case may be, will comply with the confidentiality provisions of this section and will limit the use of such information to those uses specifically permissible under this section.

(h) No person, governmental agency, or contractor, officer or employee thereof who receives information under this section shall disclose such information to any person other than the person to whom it relates, except as otherwise may be authorized by the provisions of this section or other applicable law.

SECTION 113. Tennessee Code Annotated, § 55-25-108, is repealed in its entirety.

SECTION 114. Tennessee Code Annotated, § 55-25-110, is repealed in its entirety.

SECTION 115. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
